PERFORMANCE TASK ASSESSMENT LIST
Carrying Out a Strategy and Collecting Data

Element	Points Possible	Assessment Points Earned Assessment Self	Teacher
1. Appropriate tools and materials are selected to collect the data.	_____	_____	_____
2. Skill in using the tools and materials to collect accurate data is demonstrated.	_____	_____	_____
3. Repeated measurements are taken and recorded.	_____	_____	_____
4. Tools are used safely and properly.	_____	_____	_____
5. Tools and materials are put away properly and the work area is cleaned.	_____	_____	_____
6. Strategies are used to minimize error.	_____	_____	_____
Total	_____	_____	_____

RUBRIC

Group Work

	Rating
The student's group work skills are very highly developed. The student shows responsibility by being well prepared. The student contributes during discussions and actively listens to others. The student strongly supports his/her own opinions. The student promotes positive human relations within the group.
The student shows responsibility by being prepared for group work and completing all individual tasks on time and with quality. The student listens to others and is tolerant of divergent views. The student supports his/her own opinions and works with the group to carry out a plan to accomplish the group's goal on time and with quality. The student promotes favorable human relations within the group.
The student is not prepared for group work and does not complete individual tasks on time and/or with quality. The student contributes too little or excessively dominates group work. The student may not support his/her own position or may not be willing to listen to others. The student is a poor team player and does not work to develop and carry out a plan to accomplish a task. The student does not promote positive human relations in the group.
The student is a very poor group worker or will not participate at all.

Comments: