

PERFORMANCE TASK ASSESSMENT LIST

News Broadcast with Visual Display

Element	Points Possible	Points Earned
Content
1. The news broadcaster has been truthful. The science facts are correct.	_____	_____
2. Accurate supporting details explain the concepts.	_____	_____
3. The broadcast is presented with appropriate vocabulary to communicate with the audience.	_____	_____
4. The focus for the news report is clearly evident in the introduction.	_____	_____
5. The listeners report having their interest immediately captured.	_____	_____
6. There is a flow to the presentation, with a clear beginning, an organized body, and a clear conclusion.	_____	_____
7. The information is concise. There is as much news as possible in the least amount of time.	_____	_____
Presentation
8. Vocal qualities, such as rate, volume, articulation, and enthusiasm, are good.	_____	_____
9. Positive humor is used appropriately.	_____	_____
10. Body language, such as eye contact, posture, and body movements, are used effectively.	_____	_____
11. Attire is neat and presentable.	_____	_____
12. The speaker responds well to questions.	_____	_____
Display
13. Visuals, including pictures, diagrams, photographs, videos, flow charts, and other props, are used appropriately to support the presentation.	_____	_____

14. Visuals clearly and accurately explain the science concepts, and support the oral information being presented.	_____	_____
15. The graphics, such as symbols, words, statements, colors, patterns, and designs, help carry out the theme.	_____	_____
16. The graphics are creative, and thoughtfully organized.	_____	_____
Total	_____	_____