

Carpentry & Building Construction

Chapter 4 Hand Tools

Section 4.1 Assessment Answers

1. A layout tape measure is used for laying out foundations and site features, such as walkways and driveways.
2. A chalk line is used.
3. A combination square can be used.
4. A scratch awl would be used.
5. Answers will vary.

Section 4.2 Assessment Answers

1. A block plane cuts bevel-side up. A jointer plane cuts bevel-side down.
2. A wood rasp has raised teeth instead of cutting ridges.
3. A utility knife cuts roof shingles, tarpaper, batt insulation, wood veneer, and many other materials.
4. A hooked blade on a utility knife cuts carpeting.
5. 1/8

Section 4.3 Assessment Answers

1. The hand sledge is the heaviest hammer.
2. Claw hammers, ripping bars, and pry bars are used to pull nails.
3. Wrenches turn nuts and bolts.
4. Metal snips are also called tin snips or aviation snips.
5. Answers will vary.