

Carpentry & Building Construction

Chapter 7 Ladders & Scaffolds

Section 7.1 Assessment Answers

1. The folding ladder, which is self-supporting and used generally indoors for low or medium heights; the straight ladder, which is used primarily outside and is not self-supporting.
2. Replace it or have it fixed by a professional.
3. Aluminum and laminated wood.
4. Aluminum planks are lighter and more durable than wood.
5. 6 feet

Section 7.2 Assessment Answers

1. When working in cramped work areas or on rooftops.
2. One can move up and down fairly quickly and easily using the pump jack.
3. A folding roof bracket.
4. A lifeline is a safety device including a rope and a harness, worn by a worker to prevent a long fall.
5. Answers will vary.