Chapter 24 Social and Ethical Responsibility

Section 24.1 Social Responsibility

SECTION 24.1 After You Read Answer Key

Self-Check

1. Being socially responsible means creating safe and environmentally friendly products, treating customers and employees fairly, and running an honest and ethical business.
2. Entrepreneurs can donate products, expertise, and services to the community; they can also get employees involved in philanthropy.
3. A business can join with other companies to promote social responsibility by working on a community project together like planting trees. A restaurant, for example, could donate food to the homeless shelter or host a fund raising event for a charity.
