

Check Your Answers: After You Read

Section 31.1

Review Key Concepts

1. A fashion refers to a certain characteristic that are popular at a particular point in time, whereas a style is a distinctive form of a clothing item.
2. The five basic elements of design are line, shape, space, texture, and color.
3. Warm colors: red, orange, and yellow; cool colors: blue, green, and violet.

Practice Academic Skills

4. Answers will vary but should offer a thoughtful and detailed explanation for the choice and point of view regarding color.
5. Answers will vary. Possible choices include: 1940s-style women's suits with shoulder pads that returned in the 1980s as a way for women for express their strength and independence as they did during World War II; 1960s styles such as flowing skirts and peace signs that returned in the 2000s as a means for young people to express their point of view as they did in that earlier era.

Section 31.2

Review Key Concepts

1. What we wear is influenced by society, trends, culture, the situation, roles, dress code, group identity, and peers.
2. Two-piece outfits; front opening; large neck opening; flat, non-slip shoes; wide enough to fit over casts; soft enough to feel comfortable under a cast or brace.
3. Evaluating your wardrobe allows you to make the necessary changes to meet your clothing needs and wants.
4. You can expand your wardrobe by sewing new clothes, redesigning your clothes, or trading clothes.

Practice Academic Skills

5. Presentations should provide information describing the connection between achieving a goal and dressing appropriately, such as wearing professional attire to a job interview.
6. Lists may include: Amish kapp, Mexican sombrero, French beret, Hindu turban, Jewish skullcap (kippah), Muslim hijab, Scottish tam o'shanter, and Australian akubra.