

Chapter 36 Financing the Business

Determining Net Income from Operations

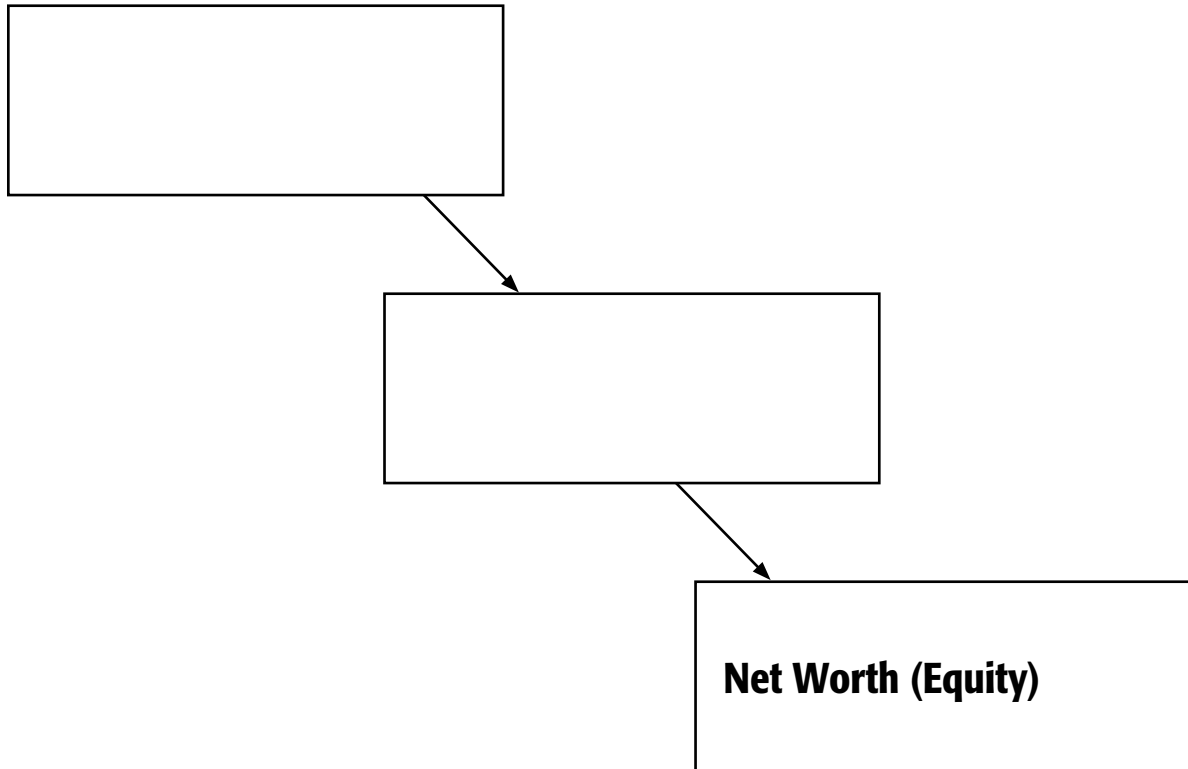

Directions Use this graphic organizer to discuss different types of income and expenses that should be listed under net income from operations.

Chapter 36 Financing the Business

Creating a Balance Sheet

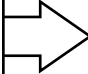

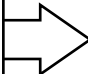

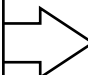

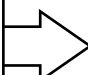

Directions Use this graphic organizer to trace steps used in creating a balance sheet.

Chapter 36 Financing the Business

Analysis of Financial Statements

Directions Use this graphic organizer to discuss various ratios used to assess financial statements.

You want to determine a business' ability to meet its short-term cash needs.
You want to determine how quickly a business' assets can be turned into cash.
You want to measure how many days it takes to turn over inventory.
You want to determine the rate of profit as percentage.
You want to determine how well you are doing compared to other companies.	