

Chapter 10 Saving and Investing

College and Career Readiness: Information Literacy

Directions There are news sources available. Watch, listen, and read a story from each type of source listed below. List the name of the news program and the main story you watched, read, or listened to. Note the details they report, and sources they cite, and evaluate if those sources are reliable and credible.

Media Sources
Network TV:
Cable TV:
Public TV:
Newspaper:
Magazine:
Radio:
Internet:
Other:

Which news source presented the most details and research in its reporting? Explain.

Choose one story and list the supporting sources used in the story.

Name _____ Date _____ Class _____

Research one or two sources with opposing views. How did they try to influence opinions?

Were the sources in the stories reliable and credible? After researching both, are you more inclined to believe one over the other?

Which format allows for the most in-depth news?
